

Safety and Quality in Online Youth Information

Youth on the Net Seminar
Luxembourg, 18. February 2011

Cornelia Untersberger

The Project

- Objectives of the project:
 - create material/training for Youth Information workers
 - empower youngsters to a better use of online resources
- Partner organisations: Austria, Finland, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Scotland, Spain, Turkey
- Expert group: 11 contributors from various backgrounds
- Time frame: March 2010 – April 2011

Deliverables of the project

- TOOL KIT for Youth Information workers:
 - Information booklet on safety and quality online
 - Workshop for young people (Webbie workshop)
- Training module for Youth Information workers
 - 1st Training for Trainers in March 2011 in Vorarlberg, Austria (approx. 20 international participants)

Information Booklet

- Reference material for Youth Information workers
- Topics covered in the booklet are:
 - Literacy in a digital age
 - Searching for quality information online
 - Creating quality information
 - Risks and opportunities online
 - Digital citizenship

Webbie workshop

- 2 completed workshops (Antalya, Turkey 2010 and Mollina, Spain 2011)
- 43 participants between 16 and 20 years of age from 11 European countries
- Practical interactive activities on online safety and quality

Workshop Activities I

Setting the scene:

The KEY TERM twister

Workshop Activities II

Discussing the facts:

The NETIQUETTE survey

Workshop Activities III

Acquiring knowledge:
The WEB SEARCH quiz

Workshop Activities IV

Putting knowledge
into practice:

YIDIY – Youth
Information
Do-it-yourself

Workshop Activities V

Sharing knowledge:

MOVIE MAKING

European Youth Information and Counselling Agency

1st WEBBIE workshop
Antalya, Turkey

11.-14.
November2
010

Thank you!
... any questions ?

cornelia.untersberger@eryica.org